Jaime

Cant believe that you want to walk away from me Cant talk to me, put a restraining order, huh?, on my dog and me? Why the third degree? I know I threw the TV but you tried to leave I was just hangin out and you runnin' your mouth Talkin bout "you aint good enough for dirty south" You know I tried to beat it down when Im in the house You were the first girl that I ever called a spouse Cancelled every other call but that aint good enough 'cause you aint satisfied 'less Im up your butt But Im tellin' you now I can't live without you You'll be the last that my heart goes out to I been cut to many times to trust again, will I bust again Will I rust within, our love must a been Many tried to take me away from you, but I aint give in You're my only friend, the one truly down Won't you come around, I'm on shaky ground I need you back in the crib, I need you back in the car If you aint back in a minute then I'll be back in the bar 'cuz if Im ridin' alone I'm not ridin' at all Another death from a broken heart and alcohol Sittin' here staring at 'cha wedding gown All broken down, won't you come around Jamie wont you come around And care enough to say all those words Ever on this dream, God will it stay Jamie if you come around Heaven would fall upon the world Ever on this dream, God do I pray Back then when we met, you were stalking' me Two days, telling me you were in love with me Pluggin, rubbin and jumpin and huggin me I still think you might a been drugging me 'cuz it had been a long time that I aint felt pain I had the feeling I was gonna make you my main Show you my brain, sharing my name And let you enter the world of the most insane But you were already there, not washing your hair Takin' knives to your pale skin everywhere Feeling lost 'cuz your ex-boyfriend took a sheet in the crib To his neck, and hung his head in the air You thought that you were to blame, I said, it wasn't your fault? You said that God brought me here to you and to heal your heart You said, I saved your life?, I said, I'm doin' my part? You said, I'll be your wife?, I grabbed the shopping cart And it was on, now you're gone and I need you more than ever The days are long, the nights take forever And even when the sun is out, it's still bad weather People ask me how I'm doing, I lie; say, "never better" But Im really scared to get out of the bed so I sleep And jump out the sheets when my 2-way beeps Hoping that it's you saying, "Brooks I was wrong, and I miss you Baby-doll, Im comin' back next week" (but it isnt) Jamie wont you come around And care enough to say all those words Ever on this dream, God will it stay
