

Waho By the Hoti

Rehab

(Ah Yeah!)

(Ah Yeah!)

Take 75 North, get off on North side.
Try take a left, cross the bridge on the left side.
We would watch the sun come up after a long night,
Everything you need to make you feel like wrong's right. (Ah yeah!)

Blazin, raisin' cane at the Days Inn.
Room 221, gettin it done.
Goin out our minds for a good time.
We were high like H.I., livin life on the run. (Ah Yeah!)

Spendin my money like else mattered,
When the Folks rolled by, everbody scattered.
It was dirty, it was seedy, it was grimy, it was gritty.
They was stripping, they was strappin, they were trippin, they were trappin.
(Ah Yeah!)

There's a Waho by the Hoti when they sang that moto.
And if you drive through you don't want to go solo. (Ah Yeah!)
Mouse trap a chicken, now plate and a good buzz.
Good times may be a day, cause that's just what it was,
Cause (Ah Yeah!) that's just what it was.
Oooh, (Ah Yeah!) that's just what it was.
Just (Ah Yeah!) what it was. (Ah Yeah!)

The sink and the bathtub both full of beer,
There were empty cigarette packs everywhere.
People coming, people going, everybody's celly ringing.
Ain't nobody sleeping till you hear the birds singing. (Ah Yeah!)

Taking everything that you could think of to the head,
Just lettin off steam, someone poppin off lead.
And the honeys made their money with the oldest know profession,
Unless you were holdin cause they all were on a mission. (Ah Yeah!)

We were ready to fight at the drop of a dime,
Didn't never check the clock, wasn't worried 'bout the time.
It was dirty, it was seedy, it was grimy, it was gritty.
They was stripping, they was strappin, they were trippin, they were trappin.
(Ah Yeah!)

It is Waho by the Hoti when they sang that moto.
And if you drive through you don't want to go solo. (Ah Yeah!)

Yeah we were living for the moment, if they had it we was on it.
Getting drunk and staying drunk until the morning, talkin junk.
And lookin homeless, it was just a place your momma told you not to go,
The kinda spot you locked and loaded if your smart (Ah Yeah!) but if you're not.

You're like I was when I was there, stupid, but the rooms were cheap,
Food is inexpensive, gettin' geek until we went to sleep.
Better hope you get a bed cause those were sure some dirty floors,
Had to look through the peephole when people knocked the doors. (Ah Yeah!)
