

Lion Heart

ReinXeed

Once in time, all from the start, I longed for the LionHeart
Now your minds has shown itself, and I know what you're looking for
The road to your fate is beginning to fade, your destiny is not far away

I was after history, but now I am all from the start
The Gods of Valhalla where reaching out their hands for the Lion Heart

When I look into your beautiful eyes I see the truth
Now your soul is burning up, and I know what you are searching for
By using your heart that is stronger than steel, many peoples lives you can heal

I was after history, but now I am all from the start
The Gods of Valhalla where reaching out their hands for the Lion Heart
I was after history, but now I am all from the start
The Gods of Valhalla where reaching out their hands for the Lion Heart
