

Second Chance

ReinXeed

Can you hear the silence as it
Opens up thenight?
Now of all the nights I feel alone
No one sees me where I am
I am always in the dark
Maybe one day I will find a friend

Can't you see me for what I am?
Not the beast outside my soul
Once again I'm telling you

Here I stand I will always
Be by your side
Yourlight will shine
Through darkest night
Here I stand with my hand
Reaching out for you
Please won't you give me
One more chance?

Once I was a cruel man
A prince and no one feared me
Now I have become the thing
I feared to be

I have lived out side
The world too long
Now I find true love in you
I'm telling you

Here I stand I will always
Be by your side
Yourlight will shine
Through darkest night
Here I stand with my hand
Reaching out for you
Please won't you give me
One more chance?

Now there's no more silence
When I welcome morning light
I have you here by my side at last

Here I stand I will always
Be by your side
Yourlight still shine
Through darkest night
Here I stand with my hand
Reaching out for you
A second chance that's all I needed
