

I believe in night, I believe in day
And I believe there's a light coming back around again
And I believe you're right cause I believe there's a way
And I believe I might have some catching up to do

Oh-oh-oh, the voices are growing strong
Oh, oh, oh, the rumbling of thunder a rolling drum
Let Your Kingdom come

I believe in God, I believe in God
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe that I, I believe enough
So help me God
I believe in love and I believe in us
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe the sky was made for me to touch
I believe the sky was made for me to touch

I believe in peace when it's sweeping over me
And I believe in fear when I feel courageous
And I believe this life is more than tangible
And I believe the sky is going on for ages

Oh-oh-oh, the voices are growing strong
Oh, oh, oh, the rumbling of thunder a rolling drum
Let Your Kingdom come

I believe in God, I believe in God
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe that I, I believe enough
So help me God
I believe in love and I believe in us
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe the sky was made for me to touch
Was made for me to touch
And I believe the sky was made for me to touch

I yelled in the wind
He came rolling back to sweep me off my feet
I cried to the rain
He came pouring down to drown my disbelief

Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, I believe in God, I believe in God
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe that I, I do believe enough
So help me God
I believe in love and I believe in us
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe the sky was made for me to touch
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, I believe in God, I believe in God
Oh, oh, oh-oh-oh, and I believe the sky was made for me to touch
Was made for me to touch
Was made for me to touch
Was made for me to touch
