

God I Hope So

Remedy Drive

I could see it in your eyes
Lit up like a neon sign
I always thought we'd have more time, more time

Did we let it slip away?
Why were we too scared to be afraid?
I never thought we'd reach this place, this place

Maybe this is just the way it had to be
Maybe there's a beauty in this tragedy
I don't know, but I hope so
Maybe time, it doesn't ever let you choose
Learning how to find is learning how to lose
I don't know, but God I hope so

All these thoughts I can't ignore
Thoughts that whisper in a quiet roar
But I can't walk back through a closed door, a closed door

Maybe this is just the way it had to be
Maybe there's a beauty in this tragedy
I don't know, but I hope so
Maybe time, it doesn't ever let you choose
Learning how to find is learning how to lose
I don't know, but God I hope so
