

King of Failures

Remedy Drive

By your side I can be rightstanding in your eyes now
By your words I can be made new make me alive now

You came into a broken race
King of failures, took my place

You were bruised
You took great pains for me to breathe now
I'm not a slave
You took my chains and set me free now

King of failures took my place now
I stand upright before your face somehow