

Valuable

Remedy Drive

The scar that's in my side says
As the sea is wide my love is more so
I'm everything you need
Don't you know the blood I bleed is for you - don't you know

I bridged the gap you see
I'll supply your every lack and need
To bring you back to me
You're so valuable

Child can't you see You're worth more than all the world to me - you're priceless
You're the iris in my eye
And I hold you up so high - I hold you priceless bridge:

Don't you know
You're worth so much to me
Don't you know
I crossed the line it's true
When I left my throne behind for you
I gave it all for you
You're so valuable
