

Go Mr. Sunshine

Remi Nicole

Pump it louder please!!

You know it's summer when you call up and tell your friend of your amazing bikini set that you bought at top shop you know it is hot outside when things are really going right and its still light at night and in the pubs there are no fights

Go Mr sunshine go go (Go Mr sunshine)
your gonna rise up in the sky and say hello (rise up in the sky and say hello)
the streets are like a fashion show
(the streets are like a fashion show)
so get outside cause its summer time don't you know

You summer has kicked off
When the boys have got there shirts off Even the fat old men with the hairy chests When keeping them on would be best So girls walk around with nothing on Cause they know the sunshine wont last long So they really have to market themselves Cause in the winter they'll be left on the shelf
