Remy Zero

1. I feel my wings have broken in your hands I feel the words unspoken inside and they pull you under and I would give you anything you want, but know you were all I wanted and all my dreams are falling down crawling around and around

R: somebody save me let your warm hands break right thru and somebody save me i don't care how you do it just stay, stay oh come on i've been waiting for you

2. I see the world has folded in your heart I feel the waves crash down inside and they pulled me under I would give you anything you want, but know you were all I wanted
and all my dreams have fallen down crawling around around

R: and all my dreams are on the ground
crawling around around
