

Cold Is Being

Renaissance

so cold is being lonely the living part is done behold the feeling lonely the dying has begun the world is spinning slow so cold is being sadness so tired slow

oh how can we believe behold the feeling sadness we earn what we receive the pain it overflows but won't you help us realize overflows

see it through your eyes within our minds
so cold is being tired
the earth grows cold the earth grows old behold the feeling tired watch darkness open wide stand quietly at the side so dim

the light is growing dim within
