

Skaila

Renaissance

Skaila - playing stardust - in the moonlight
Turning into music - colouring the daybreak
Following the morning - Skaila she plays on ...

Skaila she takes the shadow - into the distance
On reflecting rainbows, silhouettes of sunshine
Skaila she plays on

Skaila plays on spirals - circles turning
Falling into rivers - melodies are streaming
Playing all around us - Skaila she plays on

Skaila she takes the sunshine - into the darkness
Where she finds the music - scattered in the right time
Skaila she plays on

Skaila plays on mirrors - stretching over
Tumbles into voices - echoing the music
Everyone is dreaming - Skaila she plays on
