

True Intimacy

Rend Collective Experiment

Whatever I hold
There's nothing compares
To having You close

True intimacy is my desire
To catch Your whispers
To carry Your fire

You're my ambition
My destination

More than living
More than breathing
You're the reason
My heart's beating

There's nothing greater
Than knowing You
You unlock my joy
You waken my soul

Forever I'm Yours, God
Forever You're mine
A wonderful truth
That you are my life

You're my ambition
My soul's true mission

More than living
More than breathing
You're the reason
My heart's beating

So I'm giving
Freely yielding
You're the reason
My heart's beating

[illegible]

More than living

More than breathing
You're the reason
My heart's beating
Yeah
