

Love Will Remain

Renegade Five

It's hard to say
It's hard to find
All the words I
Want you to hear

You're so beautiful
So soft and sweet
Even more than I feel
I deserve

There's one thing
You should know
When I walk away
I'm always coming back to you

Things they will change but I know
My love for you will remain
Sometimes it hurts but I'm sure
My love for you will remain

One word can change
The way we live
Let us never say
Goodbye

Within my embrace
You'll feel that you're safe
I will try my best to Keep it that way

Cause when you're feeling down
I'll always be the one
Who will keep on coming
Back to you

Things they will change but I know
My love for you will remain
Sometimes it hurts but I'm sure
My love for you will remain

You're the reason
For me to choose
This way of life

Cause when I hold you
It feels like
We're meant to be

You're so beautiful
So soft and sweet
Even more than I feel
I deserve

Things they will change but I know
My love for you will remain
Sometimes it hurts but I'm sure
My love for you will remain

Things they will change but I'm sure
My love for you will remain
