

All Heaven Broke Loose

REO Speedwagon

All heaven broke loose
It hit me like a shot right out of the blue
All heaven broke loose
I was shaken by the power of love
Taken by the power of you

If I don't get to heaven
For the things that I've done
I guess it's all just history now
Too late to be the innocent one

I know that I've been led astray
Love has torn me apart
But each day is a victory now
Since you have given peace to my heart

Oh, I was a little bit crazy then
Wheels kept turnin' around
And I kept losin ground
Till you stopped me from fallin' again

All heaven broke loose
It hit me like a shot right out of the blue
All heaven broke loose
I was shaken by the power of love
I was shaken by the power of you

Now you've been my salvation
Been a love with no cost
Brought me to my senses again
Gave me back more than I've ever lost

So, baby if I loose my way
If temptation goes to my head
It's only a twist in the road
There's no way that I'll be mislead

Oh, I was a little bit crazy then
But I'll pay the price
For my fool's paradise
Now I've just got to hold you again

All heaven broke loose
It hit me like a shot right out of the blue
All heaven broke loose
We were shaken by the power of love
Taken by the power

The love that you've given me
Is a love that is true
And each time I feel like running
I come running home to you, yeah

Oh, we were a little bit crazy then
All heaven broke loose
It hit me like a shot right out of the blue
All heaven broke loose

We were shaken by the power of love

All heaven broke loose

We couldn't stop feelin', no, no, no

All heaven broke loose

Oh no, no, no, no, no

All heaven broke loose

Taken by the power of you

It hit me like a shot right out of the blue

All heaven broke loose

Oh no, no, no, no, no, no, no
