

Throw the Chains Away

REO Speedwagon

I'll be your builder, skilled at the tasks you ask
I'll be you sinner baby, allowing my soul to be sold
But I'm drawing the line there woman
I ain't takin' no more abuse
I'll be puttin' my foot down and then
Throw the chains away

Locked in your prison, much too late for escape
Your walls are closin' in, let's tie the knot while we're hot

Bells are ringing, but my ears won't hear
And you're comin' for me, with the chains and the key
