

Baby, This Love

repeat offender

All of the madness, surrounding this,
Take down the walls, keeping this alone,
The truth could set us free,
Let's just wait and see...

'Cause you are the shoelace, hanging from my rearview,
Won't ever look back and see you,
Don't wanna keep you secret,
Shout it out...

Baby, this love, it can't be real,
Finally, these hearts begin to heal,
Baby, we've seen the colours fade,
And all the magic, escape the stage..
Have you got someone, listening?
Are you listening?

'Cause there's so much they'll say,
You and I have been misplaced,
I'm just a suitcase, never been cleaned,
Never had a hand come and pick me up,
Take me some place good,
I always hoped you would...

Baby, this love, it can't be real,
Finally, these hearts begin to heal,
Baby, we've seen the colours fade,
And all the magic, escape the stage..
Have you got someone, listening?
Are you listening?

Baby, this love, it can't be real,
Finally, these hearts begin to heal,
Are you listening...?
Baby, we've seen the colours fade,
And all the magic, escape the stage..
Have you got someone, listening?
Are you listening?
