

Long Lost Friend

Restless Heart

Once upon a long ago
Someone touched my heart and soul, my life
You and I were meant to be
Was I just too blind to see the light in your eyes

[CHORUS]

Long, lost friend
So good finding you again
I curse the fool I've been for drifting away from you
Though I lost my way
You've been strong enough to stay
Faithful to the end
Long, lost friend

Seasons change and people too
I'm so glad that I had you out there
Through the rise and through the fall
Even when I'd lost it all
You cared like no one else

[REPEAT CHORUS]

Though I lost my way,
You've been strong enough to stay
Faithful to the end
Long, lost friend
So, good finding you again
I'll be faithful to the end
Long, lost friend
