

Can't Stop Loving You

Resurrection Band

I love the rain
I love the autumn wind
I love the snow
I love the space I'm in
I love the cold, on a winter's day
I love the truth, of the things You say

Sometimes my world gets spinning like a top
No matter what the price I just can't stop

I can't stop lovin' You
I can't stop lovin' You, no no
I can't stop lovin' You
No matter what they say

I love the waves, on a stormy sea
I love the stars, the way they shine at me
I love the moon, I see Your Light in it
I love Your Word, there's so much life in It

Sometimes I feel my world is falling down
How good to know Lord that I've been found

I can't stop lovin' You
I can't stop lovin' You, no no
I can't stop lovin' You
No matter what they say

There's nothing more, that I'd like to do
Than to see Your Face, and fly away with You
And pass those gates, and enter Heaven
With my wife, and my children

Oh Lord I know You must be coming soon
I'll stand before this world and shout it's true

I can't stop lovin' You
I can't stop lovin' You, no no
I can't stop lovin' You
No matter what they say

I can't stop lovin' You
I can't stop lovin' You, no no
I can't stop lovin' You
No matter what they say

Lord, I can't stop lovin' You
I can't stop lovin' You, no no
I can't stop lovin' You
No matter what they say
