Gotta go slow Gotta go slow

Pig without wings Is just another pig And a prick that's not hard Is just another dick

Open real wide and in goes my fist Wasn't that just so delicious Peddling backwards, great exercise Monopoly's a way of life for some

That perfect car, the house, the pool That fucking girl from high school The spoon, the spoon Oh, fucking christ, the spoon

Cutting lines Oh god, it's finally time to party Dirty (8x)

Delivery, I'm fucking starving Sounds good, let's get it going Bury me up bread and a rocket Expect no delays

Topsy turvy Driving on the curvy To the sounds of Mail boxes knocking over Help my aim, oh please In a search, maybe Don't tell anyone where I be

My sticky situations Hiding, I'm flying I keep them From all you

Fucking motherfuckers Fucking motherfucker

A pig without wings Is just another pig And a prick that's not hard Is just another dick

Nickles and dimes and pennies count That's like sixteen cents to go toward a blow job Know you've all been there before, Fell face first, god makes you fall from grace

Sick, up late, don't call me names What's all this shit on my face The spoon, the spoon Oh, fucking christ, the spoon

Cutting lines Oh god, it's finally time to party Dirty (8x)
