I can't deny it, I fucking like it It brings on confidence and courage that I lost I turn into it, it helps me through it Until I lie awake and contemplate it all

You can't break me Taking hold of it all

I've finally gone straight down I can't deny it, I lie and loathe I've finally gone straight down I can't deny it, I lie and loathe

I know I hate you, I can't escape you You bring me emptiness and nothing I've become I can't resist it, I wouldn't miss it It's finally coming out, the darkness and the cold

I've finally gone straight down I can't deny it, I lie and loathe I've finally gone straight down I can't deny it, I lie and loathe

Loathe, you fucking loathe You fucking loathe Loathe, you fucking loathe You fucking loathe You fucking loathe

Loathe

I've finally gone straight down I can't deny it, I lie and loathe I've finally gone straight down I can't deny it, I lie and loathe

You fucking loathe You fucking loathe You fucking loathe
