

Are You Taking Me Home

Revis

Say hello in the dark
Am I showing too much
My beating heart
When our fingers touch
I lost my mind
Taking your hand in mine

Music fading in the dark
Slide closer to me
Make a flame from a spark
I lost my mind
With just your hand in mine

Tonight, are you taking me home
I starve with my conscience alone
To see your lips move
And to hear your voice ring through

They're closing bars on this lonely street
No one else around, just you and me
A city asleep
Dreams when our faces meet

You look inside my eyes and know
What I'm thinking of but you have to go
Turning away
Waiting for me to say

Tonight, are you taking me home
I starve with my conscience alone
To see your lips move
And to hear your voice ring through

Tonight, are you taking me home
Tonight, are you taking me home

Tonight, are you taking me home
I starve with my conscience alone
Tonight, are you taking me home
I starve with my conscience alone

To see your lips move
To give me somethin'...new...new

Tonight just take me home
I starve with my conscience alone

Tonight, are you taking me home
