

All Of This For You

Revive

Love gave me a welcome when I least expected
He opened up the door and waves me in
But straight away I knew there was no way I could enter
I was just too broken to begin
And as I turned away I could hear him say

It's you I've come for, it's you I want more
I'll do anything for you
There's nothing left to say, nothing left to prove
I've done all there is to do
I do all of this for you, all of this for you

So he took me by the hand and led me inside
Sat me at the greatest feast I'd seen
And the praises of the saints would echo through the hall way
Were like something from a beautiful dream
Then love lent in near and whispered in my ear

It's you I've come for, it's you I want more
I'll do anything for you
I've done all there is to do
I do all of this for you

My heart is filled with deeper joy than I've ever had
To be fully knowing, yes you're loved
And nothing I had ever done can even compare
To hearing these words for [incomprehensible]

It's you I've come for, it's you I want more
I'll do anything for you
I've done all there is to do
I do all of this for you, all of this for you
