

It Could Be

Revive

It's times like these need guidance please,
Speak your word in my life, Lord.

In my life, I cry out.

Decision time,
There's no way out,
Seems the ocean beside me is smiling back,
I'm hit by a wave of confusion about this one, this one.

Well, it could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something,
It could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something great.

Which way to go? Full speed or slow?
So scared to chose and make a wrong move.

In my life, I cry out.

Decision time,
There's no way out,
Seems the ocean beside me is smiling back,
I'm hit by a wave of confusion about this one, this one.

It could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something,
It could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something great.

Lord, make my path straight,
I'll trust you'll make my path straight, and be still in you.

Decision time, and there's no way out,
Seems the ocean beside me is smiling back,
I'm hit by a wave of confusion about this one, this one.

Well, it could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something,
It could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something,
It could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something,
It could be, it should be,
It could be, it should be something great.

Something great.
