

Revolution

Revive

Running away, I'm the one to blame,
I try to change, but I still remain the same,
Going to ground, yet I'm coming down,
Can't right my wrongs, I've tried for too long.

So start a revolution in my heart,
Change every part, make me new again,
Oh, I got to be someone who believes,
Start a revolution in my heart,
Pull it all apart, make me new again,
Oh, I...oh, I someone who believes, yeah.

It takes time to change my mind, to take control of this wayward soul,
No other way to turn, I've learnt,
So I call to you in my soul's pursuit.

So start a revolution in my heart,
Change every part, make me new again,
Oh, I got to be someone who believes,
Start a revolution in my heart,
Pull it all apart, make me new again,
Oh, I...oh, I someone who believes, yeah.

Start in me,
Start in me a revolution,
Start in me,
Start in me a revolution.

Start a revolution in my heart,
Change every part, make me new again,
Oh, I got to be someone who believes,
Start a revolution in my heart,
Pull it all apart, make me new again,
Oh, I...oh, I someone who believes.

Start a revolution, yeah,
Someone who believes,
Yeah, yeah, yeah.
