

Wash Away

Revive

I want to be yours, but my heart has a mind of its own,
I chase after things that seem to satisfy.

Sometimes I wonder how I became a different man, but now I see.

That you changed everything when you moved in,
Wash away, wash away, wash away.

I've opened my soul, now make changes that are aching to be made,
Make my eyes yours,
I want to walk in your paths.

Sometimes I wonder, yeah, how I became a different man, but now
I see...

That you changed everything when you moved in,
And you changed everything when you moved in,
Wash away, wash away, wash away, wash away.

Wash away, wash away, wash away, wash away,
Wash away, oh, wash away.
