Chaos Of Forms

Revocation

Enveloped in entropy A swirling torrent of imagery An implanted contagion Wrenches my mind from its foothold in sanity

I have become a victim Of a world fragmented and askew Vivid hallucinations Seep into all that I do

Helpless I writhe Conduit of eyes Reaching into my mind Entities pry Discordant forms arise Ethereal sprites

Imperial towers Luminescent shine Gaining in power Through gates I arrive Outside of space and time Endlessly changing

Flashes of clarity lost in a whirlwind My sensory apparatus now blasted Stumbling I desperately cling to my consciousness Cacophonous visuals twisted and fractal Total liquefaction of my optic sense Flesh twisted into deformities grotesque
