

Dethroned

Revocation

The liar spoke so sweetly
I believed every word
She's the queen of deception
How I bowed to her
But now her crown is shattered and the pieces fall away
Your throne's a fabrication, its time to f**king abdicate
It's time to abdicate

Do you start to believe your lies if you say them a thousand times?
Does it start to eat you alive?
Knowing that you re empty inside

How do you sleep at night?
Low life no loyalty I never thought
I'd see the day that you could delude me
There will be no forgiveness no time to make amends
One thing I can say for certain,
I will never kneel before you again
I'll never kneel again

Do you start to believe your lies if you say them a thousand times?
Does it start to eat you alive?
Knowing that you re empty inside
