

What depths will you sink too?
It surprises me every day
You fit the part so beautifully and deserve an award for the role you play
You are sickening
It's never ending the cycle stays the same

Fractured facade
Why put it on?
We both know exactly what you are

Saccharine scented skin
Rotten from within
Stench of putrefaction you wreak of vermin

On your knees,
Queen of Disease
Enveloped in your misery, the epitome of disloyalty
Fill the void with iniquity

Blacked out, awakened by the shame
Cast out, defiled and defamed
You're a cesspool, lowest of the low
You're the starlet that everybody knows
What's behind the harlot's smile?
Is it denial?
Lights out baby the show is fking over

Solo: Dave

On your knees,
Queen of Disease
Enveloped in your misery, the epitome of disloyalty
Fill the void with iniquity
