

Reprogrammed

Revocation

The masses stumble into waking dreams
Embracing ambrosia, synthetic extremes
Tethered to immersions that coerce control
Serrated visions will sever the soul
Innervating, recreating you

Solo: Dave

Reprogrammed
The sky is dripping liquid death
Creating corpses, bleeding black
Caustic toxins flow into our mouths
From rampant excesses under attack

Riddled with corruption, glorified government
Tricks its constituents, inverts intelligence
Operant conditioning dictates what we say and think
Glutted with mind control medicine, daily drink

Solo: Dave

Invade me, betray me, your lies recreate me
Transforming and spawning servile replication
Losing touch with what I've ceased to be
I am just a servant now
Inject me with your poison,
I want to be reborn
