

Scattering the Flock

Revocation

Spewing bigotry from your pulpit
I will hear no more
No respect for any of your beliefs
Your religion is a bane I abhor

Always the one to cast the first stone
Your hypocrisy is legendary
How much blood must be spilled?
To satisfy a god imaginary

Throughout the ages
How many were persecuted?
To satisfy your beliefs

Total refusal of your message
We don't need to be saved
Will never be a fucking sheep in your flock
Indoctrinated and enslaved
Soldiers of Christ lay down your arms
How many must fall upon your swords?
Preaching discrimination all in the name of your lord

Followers following
Never questioning
The bullshit your swallowing

Shepherd we have scattered your flock
Now your congregation has abandoned you
Inspirer of hate, soon to be defrocked
How pitifully you cling to your archaic views

Preacher we've come for you, to cleanse you of your sins
Forcing your beliefs upon mankind, a holy war you cannot win
Preacher your days are few, the walls are closing in
We will hear nothing more, zero tolerance for your moral corruption

Shepherd we have scattered your flock
Now your congregation has abandoned you
Inspirer of hate, soon to be defrocked
Pay for the sins of your righteous abuse
