

Holy Wind

Rhapsody

Wise and mighty you are force of the earth Fierce becomes the sea at your command Winds of the south winds of the north my force raises hearing your call Blow on my heart filling my soul
give me the force of the storm

Holy wind let me fly with your wings guide me far from the way of sin Holy wind rise again on earth and sea
cross the sky kiss the mountains and my hills

For all of the time I will ride be my guide
I will follow your sign for a just life
Winds of the south winds of the north
my force raises hearing your call
Blow on my heart filling my soul
give me the force of the storm

guide me far from the way of sin
Holy wind rise again on earth and sea
cross the sky kiss the mountains and my hills.
