

The Pride Of The Tyrant

Rhapsody

Back into the fire I will have my sword
He won one fight but not the total war
Hurricanes will wipe the dynasty of kron
The chains of steel can't hold the holy storm

Sunshine is lighting the ruins of the ancient town
The seven towers are screaming their pain so loud
With my eagles, I'll will fly free
From snowing mountains to the crystal seas

Dargor don't believe him... listen to my words!
You are the one who can still save your soul
Akron is a bastard... he massacred all
The evil hands that serves the will of kron

You hate the tyrant as I and now don't deny
Give me the power to show you that I am right
With my eagles, I'll will fly free
From snowing mountains to the crystal seas

We will fly to the empire of steel gods
To discover the secret of storms
And against the black pride of the tyrant
We'll use it to defend our throne

Seven flames to not forget, to be sure I'll will not regret... ever to became the rage of god... chaos bringer worse than kron... beware!

Back into the fire I will have my sword
He won one fight but not the total war
Dargor don't believe him... listen to my words!
You are the one who can still save your soul

You hate the tyrant as I and now don't deny
Give me the power to show you that I am right
With my eagles, I'll will fly free
From snowing mountains to the crystal seas

We will fly to the empire of steel gods
To discover the secret of storms
And against the black pride of the tyrant
We'll use it to defend our throne
