

Street To Street

Rhino Bucket

I'm a bad motherfuckin' man if you take what's mine
If you mess with my woman and child, it's your suicide
These streets ain't paved in gold
These streets are covered in blood
I don't care what you think you know
Your time has come you're done

Don't tell to calm down
What's gonna happen is gonna happen right now

Street To Street, this crazy life is the life for me
Street To Street, to say alive stay away from me
I've been fighting it all my life for just a little piece
You better keep your hands to yourself
You better make believe

That i'm your only friend, I hold your life in my hands
Keep talking and you'll end up dead
It's the law of the land

Don't tell to calm down
What's gonna happen is gonna happen right now

I'll never back down from a fight
I'll send you home in body bag tonight
