

Welcome To Hell

Rhino Bucket

You've got me, right where you wanted
You've got me, where I started
Lovers, lovers, haters
Lovers, lovers, haters
You've got me, Where I wan't to be
Welcome to hell, it's the place to be
Welcome to hell, you've got a front row seat
Long Nights fight, you know I really can't see Another long night, you're slowly killing me
Liquor, lies and lovers
Every single time
Sheriff, lawyer, doctor, it takes two to do this crime
Welcome to hell, it's the place to be Just you and me, make yourself comfortable, it's kind of a hot seat
Yeah, I know you're innocent, you did nothing wrong You're just Daddy's little angel, you're just a perfect little person
You can't use people, you can't lose people
You can't just treat them like trash
You can't just treat them like someone else's cat
Welcome to hell, it's the place to be
Welcome to hell, you've got a front row seat
