

Little Angels

Rhonda Vincent

One summer day a stranger walked up to me and said, hey Little Angel would you please tell me your name.
I just turned my head and said, Laura Jane's my name.
he said, Laura, would you like to play a game.

Too young to know and understand the reason why this Little Angel had to live with so much pain.
As a child of only nine I was not to blame
Now my heart must grow beyond the shame.

Chorus

Dear God, keep an eye on Little Angels
As they lay down to sleep
I pray their Soul's to keep.
When mom and dad can't be there we hope you will hear our prayer...
Please don't let other strangers hurt one more little Angel

I got called into something not knowing right from wrong now I pray everyday to be strong God help me forgive this man maybe then I'll understand Little Angels shouldn't have to live this way.

Repeat Chorus
