

When Love Arrives

Rhonda Vincent

When memories do dances
Around you in the dark
You'll fear of new romances
When we part
But you got to take your chances
And let a new love start
And I just want to tell you
Heart to heart

When love arrives
When love arrives
Don't be afraid to let that love inside
When love arrives

Now when it's finally over
The hardest part of all
Is knowing this can happen
When you fall
So when you meet another
I hope that you'll recall
I want you to be happy after all
