

Save Me

Rich Mullins

Save me, save me
Save me from my contempt for the things that make me strong
Save me from any value I could put a price tag on Save me from Soviet propagandists
Lord, save me from Washington
Please save me, Lord save me
Save me, save me
Save me from the slick pop sounds
Laid down in virgin vinyl grooves
Save me from any woman who would be turned
On to the aftershave I use
Save me from trendy religion that makes
Cheap cliches out of timeless truths
Lord save me, please save me
Save me