You Are All

Rich Mullins

And here You are. Shinin' in a glory that I can see. When I look beyond myself And I fall into the depths Of Your love that beckons me Well it fills my hungerin' soul with all the riches That are hidden in the wonders that You do And in the words that you have spoken There's a word that echoes still And I can hear it in the silence of these hills Lord You are all that the world could not be. You are great and strong You are good Lord You are all And everything that I could ever need You are faith You are hope You are love Yes You are love You are peace You're my most high So now I fall down on my knees and cry You are all And here we are In a light that showers From things unseen Drawn from earth dropped from the sky They have crept into our lives And called us to believe In the one of whom the distant clouds bear witness He was wounded He was raised and glorified And His voice thunders in the heavens And it pulses through our veins And we can find salvation In the One the Name Lord You are all that the world could not be You are great and strong You are good Lord You are all And everything that I could ever need You are faith You are hope You are love Yes you are love You are peace You're my most high So now I fall down on my knees and cry You are all Lord You are all that the world could not be You are great and strong You are good
