Love is the law, pure perfection
I'm born again yeah
Who said love was a losin game
I've got light man, I feel no pain
Cause I'm born again yeah

Now get up when you're on the floor
Get up, do you wanna fight some more
now get up aaaah

I saw Venus up in the sky
I turned down my head and Serena smiled
That I'm born again yeah
I held the hand of a crying girl
Brooklyn tears yeah I've felt the spell
I was born again yeah

Now get up when you're on the floor
Get up, do you wanna fight some more
Now get up aaaah
This is life at in the end you know that there's light
There's no need to cry through the night
Aaaaah

Now I'm a man who ain't afraid
I destroyed my ego just to make the space
Cause I'm born again yeah
And when I feel a melody
I get a righteous charge right through me
Yeah I'm born again yeah

Now get up when you're on the floor
Just get up
Don't wanna fight no more
Now get up
Aaah anekatips

Cause that's life and in the end you know
That there's light
There's no need to cry through the night
Aaaaah

Altogether now

Na, nana-na-nana, nana-na
Come on
One life, one life, let's go
(repeat)
