

Born Under A Bad Sign

Richard Hawley

What are you like? You've had a right life
And taken a long ride, but oh what a cost

And all of your life, starin' at white lines
Readin' the road signs, and oh what a loss

Sleepin' late in the afternoon playin' your guitar
Born under a bad sign, born under a bad sign

Sleepin' late in the afternoon, stayin' out 'til dawn
Born under a bad sign, born under a bad sign

Now you're layin' in the afterglow
And there's somethin' that she wants to know
Are you gonna be the one to say,
"You belong to me, you belong to me"
Born under a bad sign, born under a bad sign

Sleepin' late in the afternoon, playin' your guitar
Born under a bad sign, born under a bad sign
You've had a right life, born under a bad sign
Ev'rybody knows, ev'rybody knows
Ev'rybody knows, born under a bad sign
Born under a bad sign, born under a bad sign
