

Pretend

Richard Lloyd

Pretend everything's fine,
Pretend that you are still mine,
Pretend you'll never change.
It was such a long time ago,
Then you turn around
And you still believe in dreams.

Pretend everything's right
Pretend that we never fight,
Pretend, but you don't comprehend.
It was such a long time ago,
And you turn around
And you are still dreaming.

I fall in love just dreaming,
And I dream
And never
And fall in love it's just pretending.

Pretend everything's fine,
Pretend that you are still mine,
Pretend, but you don't comprehend
It was such a long time ago,
Then you turn around
And you still believe in dreams.

Dreaming
Just dreaming
