

Eyes On Me

Richard Marx

I would die or kill
Battle, beg and steal
Baby, just to feel your eyes on me

Give my secrets up
Be slave to just your love
One more moment of your eyes on me

I don't know why, I don't know how
But you're burning me from the inside out
And now I live
Oh I live to hear you say
It's you who lives to take my breath away

The thing I wouldn't do for one more taste of you
I'm addicted to your eyes on me

I don't know why, I don't know how
But you're burning me from the inside out
And I only live
Oh I live to hear you say
It's you who lives to take my breath away

The thing I wouldn't do for one more taste of you
I'm addicted to your eyes on me
