

Flame in Your Fire

Richard Marx

I see you.
pretending that you don't hide you try to let love slide but inside you are seething acting cold but somebody brave and bold is chasin' you from the fold and that's his breath you're breathing, baby

A chance made just for taking

Baby, let me hold you down just so I can take you higher make you scream without a sound be the flame in your fire yeah oooh. oh. yeah yeah yeah

I am here and just so I've made it clear everything you fear is everything you're needing, baby

The truth in you needs waking

Baby, let me hold you down

There is no escaping, this is a moment I won't let you miss I am right behind you, and I am closer than a kiss

Baby, let me hold you down
just so I can take you higher
be the flame in your fire
oh yeah yeah yeah
oh yeah yeah
