

Getaway

Richard Marx

Look into my eyes and tell me now
How you feel that time is running out
And how you want to run me into the sun
That is what life is all about

I can fantasize of one more night
Realize that every moment's right
Put our hands upon anything you want
There is only common sense to fight

I am dying to
Go to every way with you

Baby save the world and we can just be gone
What are we waiting for?
One second more is one second too long
We can disappear right into yesterday
Vanish in the air, baby I don't care
Long as we make our getaway

Fingers running up and down my back
Setting me on fire just like that
I've seen it in my mind a hundred thousand times
And now here we are at last
I want to touch you like I've never touched you
I want to love you like you've never been loved before
And give you so much more

Can't think of nothing else but you all to myself

Save the world and we can just be gone
What are we waiting for?
One second more is one second too long
We can disappear right into yesterday
Vanish in the air, baby I don't care
Long as we make our getaway

Just save the world and we can just be gone
What are we waiting for?
One second more is one second too long
We can disappear right into yesterday
Vanish in the air, baby I don't care
Long as we make our getaway
