Had Enough

Richard Marx

Loneliness pacing up and down these hallways
Second-guessing every thought
Mystified, just spinning 'round in circles
Drowning in the silent screaming with nothing left to say

Everytime I reach for you, there's no one there to hold on to Nothing left for me to miss, I'm letting go, letting go of this Lost my mind thinking it through, the light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is, I've had enough, I've had enough of this.

I believe that love should be a reason

To give and get back in return (to give and get back in return)

I wanna breathe in a new beginning

With someone who will wrap her arms around what's left of me

Everytime I reach for you, there's no one there to hold onto Nothing left for me to miss, I'm letting go, letting go of this Lost my mind thinking it through, the light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is, I've had enough, I've had enough of this.

I'm tired of barely holding on
To something that's already gone.
I'm tired of being the one who's in this all alone.

Everytime I reach for you, there's no one there to hold on to Nothing left for me to miss, I'm letting go of this Lost my mind thinking it through, the light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is, I've had enough, I've had enough of this

Everytime I reach for you, there's no one there to hold on to Nothing left for me to miss, I'm letting go, letting go of this Lost my mind thinking it through, the light inside has left me too

Now I know what empty is, I've had enough, had enough of this Oh whoa, oh, I've had enough, had enough of this
