

Inside

Richard Marx

Stars alight, August night,
And you and I are set in motion
Every fear disappears
Like a tear into an ocean

Say my name just the same
Like a flame slowly burning
Fill my eyes with the sight
Of all that lies beyond the yearning

Baby there is nothing but surrender left in me

All at once our worlds collided
I ain't strong enough to hide
I've fallen, darling,
I long to take each breath beside you
Burn down all the nights before you
Slipped your hand in mine and swore to reveal it
The secret that lets me be the one inside you

If there exists a deeper bliss
Plant a kiss that wakes the morning
Reach for me, sweet as sin
You took me in against the warnings.

So I will love you everyday until my days are done

All at once our worlds collided
I ain't strong enough to hide
I've fallen, darling,
I long to take each breath beside you
Burn down all the nights before you
Slipped your hand in mine and swore to reveal it
The secret that lets me be the one inside you

I will love you everyday until my days are done

All at once our worlds collided
I ain't strong enough to hide
I've fallen, darling,
I long to take each breath beside you
Burn down all the nights before you
Slipped your hand in mine and swore to reveal it
The secret that lets me be the one inside you
The one inside you
The one inside you
