

Annabelle

Richard Smallwood

Late night I go walking in my head
But I know I can't be pushed around again
Well he laid down his life for me in the end
Well i've seen a million faces fall down at your feet

Uh huh, uh huh, I need you
Uh huh, uh huh, I can see you
Uh huh, uh huh, i've looked
Annabelle you come dancing in my head
But I know I can't be, be around you again
Well I fall down on my knees and I scream his name
Well i've been gone for way too long and I know well I
Know so I say
Well i've been pushed around, again
But he will lift me up
And she will run away
But now i'm here to say
Annabelle you come dancing in my head
But I know I can't be around you again, no
You're no good, you're no good, for me
