

Away From You

Richard Smallwood

Say you got a minute?
Because I'd like to tell you something.
You may think nothing of it,
but wait... you're gonna love it.
What if I told you I held the one true philosophy?
Would you hear me out or just turn your back
and laugh at me?
Lord, I just don't understand this strange creature you call man.
Who thinks he lives by his own hand,
but I know, I know, I know...

There's no life away from you...
So I will remain still and silent,
for fear of the words I may say.
And am I still in my defiance,
When I'm trying so hard to obey.
