

Don't Be Afraid

Richard Smallwood

I know it's hard to believe
When your eyes just can't see
So lean on Me
I have not disappeared
And I can see you from here
Tears are blinding you from the truth
Oh, I'm right here in front of you
Won't you reach out and take My hand
Don't be afraid of love
Don't be afraid of love
I'll know you'll find your strength again
Don't lose your faith
Don't be afraid
There are questions on your face
With no answers in place
So just believe
For tomorrow will come
And with it, the morning sun
Oh, I hope you will let Me in
That's when the healing begins
There's a wall surrounding you
Love alone can make it through
You're caught up in the circle you drew
And when your world starts tumblin' there for you
